

CORE 3: Leading Yourself to Lead Others

Following Before Leading

In what ways would you describe yourself firstly as a follower of Jesus before being a leader?

How does being rooted in Christ shape how you lead others?

What risks do leaders face if they try to lead without a secure identity in Christ?

Character Over Competence

"Character is the sum total of a person's distinct qualities..." — Aubrey Malphurs

Who has most impacted your walk with God, and what was it about that person that impacted you?

Front Stage and Back Stage

What parts of your life are most visible to others?

What are the parts that stay hidden?

Know Yourself, Grow Yourself

There is a self-assessment questionnaire to go along with this module. Have you taken it and what did you discover?

What experiences have shaped you most?

What do you do for fun or relaxation? Do you get enough space in your schedule for these?

Are there any areas of well-being that need attention right now?

Next Steps

One area I sense God inviting me to grow in:

One practical step I will take is:

How would your leadership change if you led yourself well?
